The first work day starts at 6 Monday evening and ends around 7pm, and the second work day starts at 10 Tuesday morning and ends at 11am. Our purpose for Novels for Hope is to keep conversation continuous on campus amongst students, faculty, & staff on issues of race, religion, ethnicity, sexuality, and gender.

The Office of Inclusion and Diversity Excellence will be hosting the club in reading five books throughout the year. The book selection is a mixture of fiction & non-fiction literature to appeal to a variety of demographics.

Fall 2018-2019 Novels:

- Educated: A Memoir - Tara Westover (September)
- I Know This Much Is True - Wally Lamb (November)
- Little Fires Everywhere - Celeste Ng (January)
- Heart Berries: A Memoir - Terese Marie Mailhot (February)
- Just Mercy: A Story of Justice and Redemption - Brian Stevenson (March)

You can participate in one, two, or all five novels throughout the year. Being a part of the club does not mean you have to join us for every novel. You must register for each book in order to participate. The first 20 people to register will receive a free copy of the novel. Register today to participate in our first novel on Tiger Link.

For questions or additional information contact Shianne Cokely, Graduate Assistant for Inclusion & Diversity Excellence, at diversity@fhsu.edu.

Online Bookstore Help

Thank you to all FHSU faculty and staff who have assisted with our transition to the Fort Hays State University Online Bookstore.

Students are still ordering course materials for the fall semester. If asked questions about order status, please make sure students are directed to the Online Bookstore Customer Service help through our online store portal – fhsu.textbookx.com/help

We have learned some students are contacting customer service through our corporate partner's website, which causes a delay in response time.

If you have questions, please contact Edie McCracken, Memorial Union Director, at 5307 or esmccracken@fhsu.edu.
